

Agreement between the Peralta Federation of Teachers and the Peralta Community College District on Stipends for Faculty Serving on Summer 2015 Faculty Hiring Committees

The Peralta Community College District ("PCCD") and the Peralta Federation of Teachers ("PFT") hereby agree that faculty members serving on faculty-hiring committees that meet during summer 2015 to recommend hires for fall 2015 will receive a $500 stipend for their participation, subject to the following limitations:

- 1) Faculty who serve on the hiring committees outside their 10-month contracts will be eligible for the stipend (faculty on 11- or 12-month assignments are not eligible for the stipend);
- 2) Stipends will be paid to committee members after the committee has finished all its work (the determination of completion will be made by the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources or designee in consultation with the faculty chair of the committee within 10 working days of the submission of the hiring packet to the district office);
- 3) If for any reason a committee member withdraws from the committee prior to the completion of its work, he/she will not be eligible for a stipend;
- 4) Faculty participation on summer 2015 hiring committees is voluntary.

This agreement—which is in accordance with Article 14.F, New Special Assignments, of the parties' CBA—is valid only for summer 2015 and is non-precedential.
