C. Justification of Rating

A rating of "Exemplary" or "Surpasses" is required for part-time faculty (who otherwise qualify) to gain entry into the Preferred Hiring Pool (see Article 30 of PFT contract). If you give a faculty member an evaluation rating of either "Exemplary" or "Surpasses" in part D, you must justify your rating, citing example(s) and/or specific factor(s). There is no "minimum" number of examples/factors that must be described in this section for a rating of "Exemplary" or "Surpasses." The requirement in this section is that the rating be clearly justified by the observer. Use additional page(s) if necessary."

Examples mav include one or more of the following:

- unique and extremely effective ways in which the librarian demonstrates her/his motivational and interpersonal skills,
- exceptional knowledge base or application of knowledge base,
- other areas or duties in which the librarian excels (e.g. classroom, orientations/lab instruction, collection development, information technology, information competencies, etc.)

Specific factors mav be -- but are not limited to -- attributes such as the ability to:

- synthesize and present ideas very clearly,
- use carefully chosen resources in various formats
- use physical demonstrations to clarify concepts
- have outstanding methods for addressing different learning styles
- encourage development of analytical and critical thinking, and information literacy (e.g., find, evaluate and use relevant information, discuss and analyze various possible reasons for specific hypotheses, or conclusions, facts, or opinions found in various research resources, and recognize need to prepare well-supported arguments using more than one perspective for class assignments)
- demonstrate responsiveness to student(s)
- maintain high standards of librarianship
- make learning relevant to students' lives by providing resources and teaching necessary skills to access information relevant to student's academic careers, employment, and long-life learning

D. Evaluation rating:

The librarian:
[] Is exemplary [] Surpasses requirements [] Meets all Requirements
[] Does not consistently meet requirements [] Does not meet requirements
